Emergency gathering spot

PARIS

Each time a person from outside the site is welcomed, information must be given. Legal obligation even for a simple meeting.

Emergency gathering spot

MEUDON

Everyone is concerned!

- Simple things

- know the safety instructions (displayed in the corridors and main entrances)
- know your workplace (gathering spot, SST, Assistants de Prévention, ...)
- read the safety guide (to be downloaded from the Intranet website of Paris Observatory)

https://scop.obspm.fr/spip.php?action=api_docrestreint&arg=0/0/pdf/Memento_Seurite_2014_livre.pdf

- Good sense

- let free emergency exits, corridors, landings of stairs...
- use appropriate equipment (anti-slip step, hand-truck,...)
- do not overload electrical outlets
- shut down electrical apparatus when you are absent
- ventilate the offices when you are there (+ risk COVID)

- Reflex to acquire

- Remove useless paperboard boxes
- notify to your AP all hazards encountered (stripped electrical wire, broken window,...)
- Throw out each kind of waste in the appropriate bin

Who does what? (1/2)

- Ingénieurs Hygiène et Sécurité (IHS)
 - give advice in all fields of security, health and safety
 - belong to an institution (“Alisson BOCKELEEE” for Paris Observatory...)
 - coordinate/supervise some actions of the “assistants de prévention”
- Assistants de Préventions
 - give advice and help the director of the lab
 - do an annual assessment of the professional risks in the lab
 - they are your local contacts
- Sauveteurs Secouristes du Travail (SST)
 - people to contact in case of an accident
 - can provide the first aid : volunteer requested

Who does what? (2/2)

- Guides files (evacuation guides)
 - help to evacuate people from a building in case of fire
- Médecins de prévention (occupational doctors)
 - follow each worker
 - medical visit mandatory for newcomers!
 - frequency depend on your tasks
- Le Directeur d'Unité (director of the lab)
 - is responsible of all members of the lab
- L'encadrant (the supervisor)
 - is responsible of its students

Your manager/employer has no right to put you in danger... which brings many rules.
